

HONORABLE JUDGE THOMAS S. ZILLY

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

L.B. and M.B., individually and on behalf of their minor child A.B., and on behalf of others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

PREMERA BLUE CROSS,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:23-cv-00953-TSZ

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1), Defendant Premera Blue Cross and Plaintiffs A.B., L.B., and M.B. hereby submit this Stipulated Protective Order.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery; the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

1 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” DESIGNATION

2 “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things
3 produced or otherwise exchanged by parties and nonparties in the above-captioned litigation:

- 4 • Protected Health Information (“PHI”);
- 5 • Documents containing personal, financial, medical, proprietary or other 6 information subject to a right of privacy;
- 7 • Any information that the producing party is obligated by contract or state or 8 federal law to keep confidential;
- 9 • Any information the producing party’s business competitors could use to obtain 10 a business, strategic, or legal advantage over the producing party; and
- 11 • Any other documents or information that should otherwise be subject to 12 confidential treatment pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

13 3. SCOPE

14 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 15 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2)
16 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
17 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential
18 material. However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is 19 in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

20 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

21 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is 22 disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 23 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be 24 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this 25 agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a 26 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 27 under this agreement.

1 4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise
2 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 3 disclose any confidential material only to:

4 (a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as 5 employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this
6 litigation;

7 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 8 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties
9 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Confidential–Attorneys’ Eyes Only 10 and is so designated;

11 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 12 this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
13 (Exhibit A);

14 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

15 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication
16 of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging 17 service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to 18 immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

19 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 20 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 21 Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court.
22 Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential
23 material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone
24 except as permitted under this agreement;

25 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 26 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.
27

1 4.4 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 2 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party
 3 to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether 4 the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is
 5 warranted. Local Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards
 6 that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

7 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each 9 party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement
 10 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the 11 appropriate standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of 12 material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other 13 portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 14 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

15 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 16 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 17 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 18 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

19 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 20 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 21 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

22 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 23 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 24 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 25 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

26 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents
 27 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

(b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

(c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Within fifteen days of the timely correction of a designation, the receiving party must provide written confirmation that it has made reasonable efforts to ensure that the material has been treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to

1 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 2 original designation is disclosed.

3 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
4 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 5 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or 6 in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
7 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.
8 The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith 9 effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

10 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
11 intervention, either party may file and serve a motion to retain or remove the confidentiality
12 designation in compliance with Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule
13 5(g), if applicable). The burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating 14 party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 15 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to 16 sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until 17 the court rules on the challenge.

18 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
19 LITIGATION

20 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 21 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 22 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party must:

- 23 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of 24 the subpoena or court order;
- 25 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 26 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 27 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

1 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued
2 by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

3 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

4 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
5 confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, 6 the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the 7 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the 8 protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were 9 made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the 10 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
12 MATERIAL

13 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 14 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 15 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Evidence 502(b). This provision is not 16 intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or 17 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 18 entry of a non-waiver order under Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) as set forth herein.

19 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

20 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving
21 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts
22 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of 23 destruction.

24 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
25 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
26 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 27 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

1 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a
2 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

3 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD. DATED this 31st day
4 of August, 2023.

ORDER

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of any documents in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other proceeding in any other court, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege applicable to those documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product protection, or any other privilege or protection recognized by law.
